

Everyone who enters the Creative Wellness Coalition is expected to understand and adhere to the following basic rules.

These rules have been established to assist everyone in learning to empower each other and for our program to operate as effective and efficient as possible. Please keep in mind that we are all adults. Also these rules were establish for means of control and to minimize any discomfort and assure fairness with who ever visits the center.

- ④ When entering the center, please sign in and state your purpose. No hanging around allowed! If you are here you need to participate in an activity.
- ④ The management has the right to ask any individual to leave the premises if their behavior does not show respect to others.
- ④ Respect for and proper usage of facilities and equipment, including taking into consideration your limitations within the facility.
- ④ No influencing of religions or politics is allowed in or on the premises.
- ④ If working on a project, please clean and pick up after yourself.
- ④ CWC tools, equipment, or supplies are strictly NOT to be removed from the Creative Wellness Coalition by anyone under any circumstances.
- ④ Please be respectful of Laurie, Sam and Trish's work time, so you will have to make appointments when needing to speak with any of them.
